

Mr. Helms (via Colonel White)

It would be very helpful if you could spare a few minutes on 8 September to meet with the recruiters who have come in from their field posts for a conference. They have been doing an excellent job under great pressure.

MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director for Support
SUBJECT : Annual Recruiters Conference

1. Our professional field recruitment officers are due in Washington for their Annual Conference, 7-16 September.
2. We would like very much to schedule you and the Director of Central Intelligence for brief meetings with the recruiters between 0830 and 1000 hours on Thursday, 8 September 1966.
3. If this time would be inconvenient for either or both of you, please let me know at your earliest convenience the times during the following week which would seem to fit your schedules.
